What do Sam, a seventh grader living in California, and Mum Teddy, a community organizer in Rwanda, have in common? What are teenagers Hector in Guatemala and Madison in Utah working on together?

They are all members of the GO Community, a global network of action-oriented heroes and "piggy-bank philanthropists" who are making a difference in our world, right now.

Mum Teddy, Sam, Hector and Madison are only snapshots of the GO Community. Learn more about other grassroots leaders who are spearheading projects in Cambodia, Kenya, Malawi, Peru, Tanzania and beyond. Get inspired by what other students across the country are doing as global citizens to help future generations.
