

Giving Opportunity to Children

Greetings!

Our kids in Tanzania are going to school because they now have uniforms and our kids in Cambodia are growing their own organic vegetables. Meanwhile our kids in Peru are navigating over mudslides to get to school and our kids in Haiti are hoping hurricanes don't head their way... It seems almost daily we receive updates on the children we serve and, we figured it was time to update you too on your contributions in action.

GO is proud to announce that to date we have disbursed funds to 32 projects in 14 countries! Thanks to supporters who attended the 2009 spectacular annual GO GO Gala, young philanthropists who have created personalized fundraising pages and used GO tools, and donors like you who have generously donated to the project(s) of your choosing.

Together we are transforming lives!

Haiti Emergency Relief Report

To the world you might be one person, but to one person you might be the world. We are one and we care about Haiti!
 ~ Benjamin M., 11

The GO Community raised over $65,000 to support our relief efforts in Haiti. In collaboration with H.O.P.E., within three weeks after the earthquake we safely airlifted and distributed medicines and supplies to those who fled from Port-au-Prince to the northern region of Borgne to H.O.P.E.'s make-shift M.A.S.H. unit on the ground. GO made it possible for H.O.P.E. to respond immediately to those in desperate need of care. Thank You!

Thanks too to those across the country who participated in our Cards for Haiti Campaign. H.O.P.E. told GO: "Your thoughtful, kind words and beautiful cards made us smile.". Special thanks also go to Doria Anselmo and Greg Marusak for hosting a fabulous house-party that raised over $15,000 for Haiti and to GO activists from Crossroads School who made and sold eye-catching "Lend a Hand to Haiti" t-shirts that raised money and awareness.

GO's support for Haiti will continue. In addition to our Education on the GO project, our intention is to be active in the reconstruction phase by providing care and services for orphans and vulnerable children. With an estimated one million children without one or both parents, it is certain GO will answer the call to rebuild the lives of these boys and girls.

GO's Global Impact

+William Kamkwamba, Mary Hark, Bob Sutton and Rasheed Akindiya are our first GO Ingenuity Award (GIA) recipients! Thanks to sponsorship from Unified Field Corporation each winner will receive $2,500 to conduct workshops in developing countries that will teach youth how to make things such as windmills, safe and affordable LED lighting and eco-friendly income-generating products. You may have seen GIA winner William Kamkwamba on Good Morning America and The Daily Show with Jon Stewart discussing his inspirational book The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind. + GO-supported Building in Africa is in progress! In Tanzania, the architect GO selected for Africa Schoolhouse recently returned from Ntulia, and plans are underway to build a resource center and a health post that will serve six villages in the Misungwi District.

In Kenya, Agosto, the Director of Kawangware Street Children and Youth Project \(KSCYP\) writes: "The real work is happening! The youth who attended the 3-day eco-training learned how to make bricks for the building project felt appreciated, consulted and involved, and later these skills will help them get jobs. The youth who have been working at the paper workshop have become self-reliant and role models. They have self actualized themselves and found value in their life." Stay tuned for more exciting news and pictures from the youth as they build a new 'green' facility for

GO Community in Action

GO Community's budding social activists and piggy-bank philanthropists are this generation's leading agents of change. Ms. Kalra's classes at Paul Revere Middle School raised more than $1,500! They decided to split their donations between KSCYP and Education on the GO. They also participated in our Haiti relief efforts and continue to stay involved raising awareness for the children we are striving to help.

Crystal Balthrop deserves special kudos! For about three years now, Crystal has been automatically donating $22 a month. You too can effortlessly donate every month or every quarter. It's easy to sign-up for automatic giving and you'll feel great knowing that you're doing your part every month! Thank you Crystal!
